NOTES

1. This form is NOT to be used to add an affix to the registered name of a dog (see form 8) or to remove an affix.
2. The applicant may use this form only if the dog has been registered with The Kennel Club within the past three months.
3. If the dog has been transferred to a new owner, then the new owner and the breeder must sign the application.
4. Only one change of name is permitted, apart from the addition of an affix to the existing name.
5. The only permissible reasons for a change of name are:-
   a) The breeder misspelt the name
   b) The breeder did not specify the name requested by the owner
   c) The breeder did not give an alternative name and initial the box to prevent The Kennel Club selecting a name
   d) The Kennel Club choice of name is not considered acceptable.
6. The Kennel Club will consider a request to change the name on any of the grounds stated above, but reserves the right to refuse any application.
7. If TWO choices are not given overleaf, the application will be rejected without further appeal if the only choice given is not acceptable to The Kennel Club.
8. If this application is successful, a revised registration certificate will be issued to the registered owner.
9. Details of any change of name will appear in the Breed Records Supplement.
10. If the application is unsuccessful, no further appeal will be considered.
11. This application MUST be accompanied by any relevant Registration Certificate issued by The Kennel Club and the appropriate fee.
